

*image
not available*

The Magic Key Copymasters, Volume 2, Thelma Page, Sue Palmer, Oxford University Press, 2000, 0199193622, 9780199193622, . The Magic Key Copymasters books 1, 2, and 3, provide support for the HIT Entertainment plc animated series, The Magic Key, televised by BBC School Television, from September 2000. Based on the Oxford Reading Tree characters, the television programmes cover learning objectives required by the National Literacy Strategy, in an exciting but educational way, with each episode including a magic key adventure. The three Magic Key Copymasters books provide six copymasters for each of the 26 programmes shown over the school year for Year 1 pupils, consolidating learning objectives, and linking visual and literacy skills to writing. They extend teacher support material produced by the BBC for the programmes. They will be sold in conjunction with the termly BBC Teacher's Packs and Videos, and both OUP and the BBC will sell all 3 resources..

DOWNLOAD HERE

Who Owns the Media? , , , , . .

North Korea, the land that never changes before and after Kim Il-sung, Bong-uk Chong, 1995, , 258 pages. .

Life & Human Rights, Issues 1-6 , , 1996, Political Science, . .

Eisenhower: the President nobody knew , Arthur Larson, 1968, Biography & Autobiography, 210 pages. Having an insider's viewpoint because he served as Eisenhower's chief speech writer, Larson scores like well in international affairs, but less well in domestic affairs..

North Korea The Invisible Exodus : North Koreans in the People's Republic of China, , 2002, China, 36 pages. .

Eisenhower Soldier and President, Stephen E. Ambrose, Oct 15, 1991, Biography & Autobiography, 635 pages. Traces Eisenhower's rise to prominence and power in the military and in his political career.

