

Myths and Legends: The Traditional Stories/The Modern Stories, , Richard Baines, Oxford University Press Australia & New Zealand, 2009, 0195567994, 9780195567991, . Myths and Legends 1 and 2 are two companion anthologies of myths and legends. Designed to broaden students' knowledge of myths and legends and to open up some of the best legendary stories, students will learn that each culture has its own stories, and that these stories often have similar themes and plots and relationships running through them. The stories featured are drawn from many countries, cultures and traditions. One half of each volume is made up of the traditional tellings of myths and legends. Turn the book over and upside down, and the other half of each book contains modern and imaginative adaptations of the stories..
