

*image
not available*

5th Report [of Session 2010-11]: Public Bodies Bill (HL), Stationery Office (Great Britain), Stationery Office, 2010, 0108476340, 9780108476341, 30 pages. The Committee considers that the powers contained in clauses 1 to 5 and 11 of the Bill (HL Bill 25, ISBN 9780108478765), as they are currently drafted, are not appropriate delegations of legislative power. They would grant to ministers unacceptable discretion to rewrite the statute book, with inadequate parliamentary scrutiny of, and control over, the process. Following a debate in the House of Lords the Minister made a commitment to consider amendments to the Bill to meet the serious concerns expressed in the debate. This report outlines the powers as they currently stand, and then considers the options for amendment..

DOWNLOAD HERE

, , , , ,

The Committee considers that the powers contained in clauses 1 to 5 and 11 of the Bill (HL Bill 25, ISBN 9780108478765), as they are currently drafted, are not appropriate delegations of legislative power. They would grant to ministers unacceptable discretion to rewrite the statute book, with inadequate parliamentary scrutiny of, and control over, the process. Following a debate in the House of Lords the Minister made a commitment to consider amendments to the Bill to meet the serious concerns expressed in the debate. This report outlines the powers as they currently stand, and then considers the options for amendment.

<http://edufb.net/335.pdf>

<http://edufb.net/417.pdf>

<http://edufb.net/149.pdf>

<http://edufb.net/992.pdf>

<http://edufb.net/874.pdf>

<http://edufb.net/291.pdf>

<http://edufb.net/467.pdf>

<http://edufb.net/1000.pdf>

<http://edufb.net/351.pdf>

<http://edufb.net/537.pdf>

<http://edufb.net/758.pdf>

<http://edufb.net/965.pdf>

<http://edufb.net/94.pdf>

<http://edufb.net/560.pdf>

<http://edufb.net/617.pdf>

<http://edufb.net/730.pdf>