

First Words in Maori: Nga Kupu Tuatahi Ki Te Reo Maori, Paul Tilling, Penguin Group New Zealand, Limited, 2002, 1869487842, 9781869487843, . First Words in Maori is an introduction to Maori words used for everyday items that occur in the lives of New Zealand children. Scenes from the park, in the classroom, on the marae, at the construction site and more provide vocabulary-building opportunities for learners of Maori. Also included are months of the year, colours, shapes and numbers..

DOWNLOAD HERE

First World War , Reg Grant, 2007, , 48 pages. A straightforward, clearly written guide to popular topics of modern history..

My Maori Colours , Tracey Duncan, Nov 23, 2009, , 24 pages. Tracy Duncan introduces children to the shapes and colours of the natural world around them in her latest illustrated book. Tracy Duncan is the author and illustrator of My

Hemi Dances , Ron Bacon, Sharon O'Callaghan, Nov 1, 1985, , 32 pages. The older boys tell Hemi he is too young to enter the break dancing competition. So Hemi goes to the river to be with the birds, the frogs and the eels. But the music entices

Pakeha Identity and Maori Language and Culture Bicultural Identity and Language in New Zealand, Maria Hepi, May 30, 2008, , 164 pages. "Since European contact with Maori, fluency in te reo Maori (Maori language) in New Zealand has dramatically declined, however there has been a revitalisation of te reo Maori

Kung Fu , Father Paul Collins, Aug 1, 2001, , 32 pages. Explores the martial art of kung fu and provides information on uniforms, choosing a school, conditioning, techniques, belts, terminology, and competition..

First World War , H. P. Willmott, 2003, Juvenile Nonfiction, 319 pages. The First World War was so terrible and so titanic a struggle that its memory haunts us still, even in the 21st century. No previous conflict had ever been as brutal or as vast

The Philip's Atlas of New Zealand and the World , George Philip & Son, Philips Staff, 2007, , 72 pages. .

Home of the Winds , Ron Bacon, Robert Leonard Bacon, Nov 1, 1986, , 32 pages. These three stories are told in a narrative style similar to the Maori orators of old. The Fish of Our Fathers is a story about the building of a war canoe. In the Home of the

The House of the People , Ronald Leonard Bacon, 1977, History, 32 pages. .

Ngā Āwhina Māori pēhanga o te Mōhiohio Women's Welfare League 1951-2001, Isolde

Byron, Maori Women's Welfare League, 2002, Social Science, 144 pages. .

Let's Learn Maori A Guide to the Study of the Maori Language, Bruce Biggs, 1998, Foreign Language Study, 189 pages. Let's Learn Maori was designed by Maori language expert Bruce Biggs in 1969. He covers the parts of speech, the structure of each type of phrase, and the combinations of

Ew Pocket Maps & Guides : London , Dorling Kindersley Publishing Staff, Apr 23, 2010, , 96 pages. The DK Eyewitness Pocket Map & Guide London will lead you straight to the best attractions London has to offer. Fully illustrated with coverage of all the major sights of

Tikanga Māori Living by Māori Values, Hirini Moko Mead, Sidney M. Mead, 2003, Social Science, 398 pages. 'Relationships between and among people need to be managed and guarded by some rules'. Professor Hirini Moko Mead's comprehensive survey of tikanga Maori (Maori custom) is the

Rere Atu, Taku Manu! Discovering History, Language, and Politics in the Maori-language Newspapers, Jenifer Curnow, Ngapare Kaihine Hopa, Jane McRae, 2002, History, 241 pages. Collection of articles by scholars of Maori language who have researched Maori language newspapers from the 1840s into the twentieth century. The book uncovers Maori opinions

Collins First Dictionary , , Jan 1, 2006, English language, 72 pages. Collins First Dictionary is the ideal introduction to alphabetic dictionaries for children aged 4 and above. A colourful illustration accompanies every headword, and

This lively and colourful book is a welcome and friendly introduction to a fascinating language. Designed to appeal to a wide age range, this book contains bright and amusing pictures and provides a wealth of vocabulary-building opportunities for learners of Maori. Common scenes such as In the Park, In the Classroom, On the Marae, At the Construction Site, plus more extend the reader's use of common Maori words. Extra lists of numbers, colours, shapes and parts of the body are found at the end of the book.

First Words in Maori is an introduction to Maori words used for everyday items that occur in the lives of New Zealand children. Scenes from the park, in the classroom, on the marae, at the construction site and more provide vocabulary-building opportunities for learners of Maori. Also included are months of the year, colours, shapes and numbers.

Book Description: Reed, Auckland, New Zealand, 1999. Pictorial Boards. Book Condition: As New. No Jacket. First Edition - Second Impression. 4to - over 9¾" - 12" tall. Book very clean, tidy and tight. Book description and fit-for-purpose packaging guaranteed. 3403.7LX213N.5BF460G/C. Bookseller Inventory # 003403

Portions of this page may be (c) 2006 Muze Inc. Some database content may also be provided by Baker & Taylor Inc. Copyright 1995-2006 Muze Inc. For personal non-commercial use only. All rights reserved. Content for books is owned by Baker & Taylor, Inc. or its licensors and is subject to copyright and all other protections provided by applicable law.

Pictures and text present Maori vocabulary for objects found in a variety of everyday situations, together with their English equivalents. Each double page spread covers a different theme, for example the kitchen, the park, the zoo, the building site, the beach and the marae. Suggested level: junior, primary.

<http://edufb.net/507.pdf>

<http://edufb.net/397.pdf>

<http://edufb.net/38.pdf>

<http://edufb.net/749.pdf>

<http://edufb.net/67.pdf>

<http://edufb.net/1004.pdf>

<http://edufb.net/571.pdf>

<http://edufb.net/358.pdf>