

The Price of Right: How the Conservative Agenda Has Failed America, Robert W. Kerwin, Alicia Morgan, Sterling & Ross Publishers, 2006, 0976637278, 9780976637271, 256 pages. Robert Kerwin loved being surrounded by celebrities. Cruise, Newman, Streisand, Hepburn, Nicholson, The Duke, Kojak and the Fonz. You name 'em, he knew 'em. In this often hilarious and sometimes heartrending portrait of celebrity, Robert Kerwin tells the story of working his way up the celebrity ladder and becoming hooked by the allure and endless possibilities that seem to come with fame and fortune. Along the way he meets hundreds of celebrities that are revealed as brittle and often wicked caricatures of themselves. The author slowly discovers that he has been duped and that the high-life is not what it seems..
