

Along a Lonely Road, Catherine Sefton, Chivers Press, 1993, 0745119093, 9780745119090, 166 pages. The day Ruth Maguire encounters the wet man on the lonely Wrack Road seems no different to any other, but their meeting on the bleak Dooney Headland, where Ruth lives with her mother and brother and little sister, has terrifying consequences..

The Pocket Elephant , Catherine Sefton, 1995, Juvenile Fiction, 29 pages. First published by Hamish Hamilton Ltd in 1995..

The ghost and Bertie Boggin , Catherine Sefton, 1996, , 63 pages. .

In a Blue Velvet Dress , Catherine Sefton, Jun 1, 1987, Fiction, 152 pages. Stranded without the beloved books, Jane fears that her holidays are ruined until one small volume mysteriously appears..

My gang , Catherine Sefton, Jan 1, 1984, Non-Classifiable, 48 pages. .

Barra's Angel , Eileen Campbell, Mar 1, 2000, , 440 pages. In the small Highland community of Drumdarg, Rose Maclean's husband, Chalmers, has caught the eye of flirty Sheena Mearns. Rose, however, is not the only one with problems. The ....

Amelia Jane Again! , Enid Blyton, Jul 1, 2005, , 260 pages. Amelia Jane just can't keep out of trouble. She is always playing practical jokes on the other toys. Like pretending to be a dog and growling at them. And making the teddy bear ....

The Beat of the Drum , Martin Waddell, Catherine Sefton, 1989, Juvenile Fiction, 138 pages. "Brian Hanna doesn't hate the Catholics. Even though, in the eyes of the Loyalists, he's got good reason - having been left disabled since infancy by the IRA bomb that killed ....

The Kidnapping of Suzie Q , Catherine Sefton, 1994, , 153 pages. When Suzie Quinn is kidnapped in a supermarket, she has to draw on all her resources and ingenuity to survive.

A Drop in the Ocean , Jim Burtt-Smith, John French, 1997, History, 320 pages. In order to qualify for membership of The Goldfish Club one has to have ditched one's aircraft in the sea and then have been rescued. The author gives accounts of ditching from ....

The Back House Ghosts , Catherine Sefton, 1974, , 158 pages. When the 11 members of the Mooney family come to stay at the Bon Vista guest house, Ellen and Bella have to move to the back house - and then the haunting begins..

The Memoirs of Frédéric Mistral , Frédéric Mistral, 1986, Biography & Autobiography, 264 pages. The Nobel Prize winning Provençal poet shares memories, anecdotes, stories, folksongs, and poetry from his past and describes rural life in the south of France.

Frankie's Story , Martin Waddell, 2001, , 149 pages. 'Frankie's Story' is about a 15 year old girl living in a troubled part of Northern Ireland. Everyone around Frankie seems to hate the RUC and get into a lot of trouble. People ....

A Roving Eye A Cordovan Chronicle, Gally Machmont, 1997, Fiction, 245 pages. .

Starry Night A Novel, Catherine Sefton, Sep 1, 1995, , 111 pages. First published Hamish Hamilton, 1986. Story of a family in crisis set in Northern Ireland.

<http://edufb.net/401.pdf>
<http://edufb.net/1435.pdf>
<http://edufb.net/7121.pdf>
<http://edufb.net/21832.pdf>
<http://edufb.net/15789.pdf>
<http://edufb.net/10301.pdf>
<http://edufb.net/22418.pdf>
<http://edufb.net/5443.pdf>
<http://edufb.net/23900.pdf>
<http://edufb.net/5266.pdf>
<http://edufb.net/11318.pdf>
<http://edufb.net/20276.pdf>
<http://edufb.net/16069.pdf>