Petkovich returns to the multi-million dollar pornindustry in America, and speaks candidly with its newest stars, some firm favourites and the industry's leading directors such as Robert Black, John Stagliano, Max Hardcore and more. Fully illustrated throughout with many previously unseen photos and colour plates.

Since 1972 and the release of Deep Throat, the business of making commercial hardcore feature films has grown dramatically. Thousands of films are produced every year. Yet for the most part the industry remains a mysterious commodity, with the people behind it still seen as unscrupulous, vaguely threatening figures. Now the record is put straight with The X Factory, an eye-opening trip into adult feature films courtesy of interviews, on-the-set reports and a visit to the "World's Biggest Gang Bang 2."

I have read a lot of books on the subject of adult films and this was not one of the best. It's not that it's a bad book it's just that anyone with web access can read interviews in the same vein with all the porn stars they want. A good Hustler interviewer asks the same questions (i.e. what's your fave position etc). Its one saving grace is the interviews with directors and behind the scenes personnel. If you're looking for a good book on porn check out The Other Hollywood or Skin flicks both are great histories of porn films.
