Students in the senior and FET phases should be exposed to many more complex English language and vocabulary-building exercises, in order to facilitate their ability to assimilate the increasingly complex abstract concepts in their learning environment. This is not only vital for learners who will go on to study university and college courses, but for every citizen in our society. ISBN-13: 978-1-874933-43-4 Research has found that people who learn to manipulate and use the English language during their formative and school years, have a real advantage over those who did not learn these basic skills. Phases: GET & FET
