One man's war, Frank Stroobant, Burbridge, 1999, 0950936014, 9780950936017, 167 pages. Frank Stroobant tells how life on Guernsey was disrupted by the arrival of the German occupying forces in June 1940. From the brief notes that he kept from 1939 to 1945, Stroobant wrote this autobiographical account of the extreme difficulties that the local population encountered and portrays what it meant to the islanders to be invaded..
